Robinson Jeffers Festival

A special tribute will be paid our nation's greatest epic poet, Robinson Jeffers (above) when the City of Carmel through it's Cultural Commission Manager presents a "Robinson Jeffers Festival" scheduled for the coming Easter weekend of April 13th and 14th at the Sunset Theatre.

The Labyrinth Theatre Players under the direction of Eric Vaughn will present the Jeffers tragedy "Dear Judas" for the Saturday and Sunday evening performances, and the comedy "Prometheus Bound" by Aeschylus, for the Saturday and Sunday afternoon matinees.

"Prometheus Bound" with its colorful masks, formal movement and bright theatricality, will be presented at the Sunset Theater at 4:30 p.m., Saturday, April 13th, and at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, April 14th.

"Dear Judas" will be presented in the manner of the Japanese Noh drama, with its dreamlike, ghostly masks and shadows at 8:30 p.m. Saturday and 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

Theatre Review

TAMING OF THE SHREW... Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor at their very best in one of Shakespeare's more humorous endeavors.

SECRET WAR OF HARRY FRIG... starring Paul Newman and his cold blue eyes. It's about the funny "going-ons" of a World War II soldier.

BLACKBEARD'S GHOST... Walt Disney's version of a ghost watching over the life of his present day friend. Complications arise.

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER, Spencer Tracy in his final work and last teaming with Katherine Hepburn. Poitier's performance capped a remarkable year for him.

THE GRADUATE, interesting, if not completely compelling, comedy. Dustin Hoffman is excellent in the title role. Anne Bancroft is extremely good as the woman who seduces him and Katharine Ross is attractive as her daughter with whom Hoffman falls in love. The picture argues that all over 30 are dishonest, corrupt and unthinking.

GRAND PRIX... a beautiful film cinemagraphically speaking. Stars actually race at high speeds while filming this magnificent picture in 70 mm film. Full stereophonic sound adds to the impact. Exclusive Monterey County showing.

HEAT OF THE NIGHT... Rod Steiger is up for an Academy Award for this one, justifiably so. A young negro policeman is picked up for murder in a Southern town, and ends up helping convict the true murderer.

BONNIE AND CLYDE... It's here again, adding more influence on the fashion parade of today. Full of murder and bloodshed. Good for the sadistic.

MADAME BUTTERFLY... Culture finally returns to Carmel with the aid of the Carmel Museum of Art and the Village Theatre. Support culture... see Madame Butterfly, a beautiful opera.

Red Cross Needs Money

"We had hoped to have completed our fund drive by the end of March," reported Francis P. Lloyd, chairman for the Carmel Red Cross Campaign for Members and Funds, "but, since we have not, we will continue working until we have reached our goal of $32,981.00. At present we are just above the 70% mark with roughly $23,000.00 collected."

The Red Cross must raise 10% more than last year. Here in Carmel we are having to purchase a new ambulance two years ahead of the schedule. Funds are set aside annually for ambulance replacement and normally a ten year period is reached before a new ambulance is needed. But, due to the greatly increased usage of the present ambulance, it needs replacement now. "In fact," said Mr. Lloyd, "the new ambulance will be in Carmel in a week or ten days."

The calls upon the chapter and the national organization for heavy expenditures for services to our servicemen, particularly in Vietnam, are the second largest factor in the higher quota. "The warm, personal responses to our gifts sent to the battle zones justify this effort," said Mr. Lloyd, "regardless of one's views on the conflict."

Many contributors have given more generously this year in response to the plea from the National Red Cross to help meet the greatly increased costs of its services to our servicemen. However, some have not yet made their contributions and the Red Cross is calling upon those who have not to do so now.

Easter Weather

Where was this hidden joyfulness concealed?
Storm-dark the winter forced its rage upon us
Beating the spirit with relentless lash,
A victim not of earth, unstruck, unbowed!
All weapons fail; while that which they are not,
A power beyond the counter-thrust of fear,
Remains unshaken, bountiful and still.

See how the spring returns in flower and leaf!
Peace is the song the blue-lit silence sings.
With startling peal the meadow-lark rings out!
Somewhere this resurrection was foreknown;
Somehow the darkness sped the news of light,
Raising from earth the life that could not die.

DORA HAGEMEYER

De Jong Resigns Conductor Post

The concert at Sunset, Tuesday evening, May 7, will be the last time Carmelites will hear the Monterey County Symphony under the leadership of its Conductor Jan de Jong, for he has resigned, effective May 31. He had joined the Symphony Association last July.

In explanation of his decision de Jong stated: "In reviewing my plans for next season, I find that I cannot reconcile the requirement that my conducting activities be limited to the Monterey Peninsula."

Association President James M. R. Glaser expressed regret at the decision, and noted the Board of Directors' appreciation for the conductor's contribution to the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra this season.

Take a quick turn around Carmel sometime before the end of the week and take a breather at Devendorf Park. You'll undoubtedly notice scattered among our normal boys and girls basking in the sun, older, half-clothed, unbathed, "misunderstood" transients who swooped down on the Village during the Easter week. Try to keep from patting your foot to the beat of the drums echoing through the park.

John Rennels Elected Treasurer; Motel And Sunset Ordinances Pass

By before 10 o'clock Tuesday night the crowd watching election returns at the City Hall were making solid predictions as to the outcome of the City elections. By midnight when the last vote was counted, their predictions were confirmed. Barney Laiolo, Frank Falge and Eben Whittlesey were elected to the City Council,

John Rennels to City Treasurer and Hugh Bayless to City Clerk. (See totals on this page.)

Just as important as the election of the officials were the two ordinances which some think accounted for the record number of votes cast. Both the Sunset and Motel Ordinances were passed by a goodly margin. The Sunset Ordinance received 882 "yes" votes to 602 "no" votes. The Motel Ordinance received 892 "yes" votes to 596 "no" votes.

An interesting observation was made when the figures were finally in and marked on the chalk board in the City Hall. The Sunset precinct passed the Sunset Ordinance by a meager 19 votes and defeated the Motel Ordinance by one vote. All the rest of the precincts voted yes to both ordinances by 50 ballots or more.

Gunnar Norberg received most of his votes from the Sunset Precinct; Councilman Eben Whittlesey from the Police Station; Carl Bosholm from the Fire House; Frank Falge from the City Hall; Fenn Horton from the Fire House; Barney Laiolo from the Police Station; John Rennels from the Police Station; and Speirs Ruskell from the Fire House. Hugh Bayless ran unopposed.

When the referendum petitions began circulating several months ago, many people felt that after these two measures were put to a vote there would be no dispute as to the wants of the citizens. It is now quite clear that the villagers want Sunset to be zoned A-2 and the motels be limited with no further possible expansion.

Peninsula YWCA Being Considered

Nancy Green of Canada and Jean-Claud Killy of France, who were making their last runs in competitive skiing.

Mr. and Mrs. Cortlandt T. Hill and son James were busy renewing friendships with skiers from all over the world. Mrs. Hill was not skiing as she is leaving for Tahiti soon.

The Jack Millers were fortunate enough to sit next to the table of Jean-Claud Killy at the World Cup dinner at the Tahoe Sahara. Only French was being spoken, but they were able to meet him. It was real "straw hat" weather with daytime temperatures in the 60 degrees at 10,000 feet.

That the cost of contributions for annexation of land of TWO HUNDRED FIFTY DOLLARS ($250.00) as set forth in Sections 3, 4 and 6 of this ordinance may be changed from time to time by resolution.

Large Stanford Endowment Fund

Three Stanford professorships have been endowed by Mrs. Samuel N. Bonsall of Carmel, who, with her late husband, had planned together a fund in memory of their son William. The professorships will be in French and history and there will be a visiting professorship in humanities. Salary, expenses and books will be provided, as well as books for Stanford libraries.

A graduate of Stanford in 1934, their son was practicing law in Los Angeles when he died in 1946. Mrs. Bonsall, a Stanford graduate in 1911 in French and history, had taught history in Los Angeles. Mr. Bonsall had been an insurance broker in Los Angeles before his death.

John C. Lapp, professor of French and executive head of the Department of French and Italian, was named as the first William H. Bonsall Professor of French to benefit from the three and a half million dollar endowment.

Jacques van Seters (left) and Joachim Hillebrand have taken new posts at the Pine Inn. Mr. van Seters will be the new Assistant General Manager, and Mr. Hillebrand the Executive Chef de Cuisine.

Pine Inn Staff Changes

Mr. Carroll M. McKee, Managing - Owner, of the Pine Inn announces the promotion of Mr. Jacques van Seters to Assistant General Manager, and the appointment of Mr. Joachim Hillebrand as his new Executive Chef de Cuisine.

This community of peregrinated citizens well recognizes the value of "old world" training in the professions of hotelier and chef. Messrs. van Seters and Hillebrand have been acquainted in Europe and here, so the authority and concomitant responsibility of their new positions should provide the association needed to face the challenge of adding further quality and lustre to the Pine Inn for its cosmopolitan customers.

Mr. van Seters, born in Rotterdam, Holland, trained at Ecole Culinaire, Lucerne, Switzerland travelled in Switzerland, France and Germany to further his knowledge. In addition to hotel training, he was Assistant Chief Steward at sea on ships of the Holland - American Line - such as the Nieuw Amsterdam and the Statendam - gourmet palaces to those who have travelled them.

He came to America in 1961 and worked his way from the East to West coast as maitre d', banquet and catering manager; e.g., for two years he was banquet manager at the Sheraton Hotel in New York and during the last year he has been food and beverage manager at the Pine Inn until assuming his new duties as Assistant General Manager.

Mr. Joachim Hillebrand served his apprenticeship in Aachen, Germany and held first chef positions in such famous hotels as the Grand Hotel, Jeschke, Bad Neuenheim, and the Kaiserhoff Hotel, Neurenberg.

Following World War II, he was executive chef for the U. S. Army Officers Clubs around Augsburg, Germany. He came to America in 1957 to be in charge of all foods served at the Presidio in Monterey. His 3½ years there and subsequent positions on the Monterey Peninsula built him an enviable reputation and following.

Mr. McKee is confident that the stimulus of the promotions will provide fresh answers to the unrelenting demand for more and better quality and service to stay on top - an enviable position enjoyed by the Pine Inn.

the Carmel Board together with the Monterey Peninsula Board of Realtors and the California Real Estate Association will co-sponsor an educational and sales conference for local Realtors and Salesmen in Monterey at the Casa Munras on Tuesday, April 23. Carmel Travelers

An adventure to think about for years to come is the memory of the 1200 mile international yacht race between Buenos Aires and Rio de Janeiro in which Harvey Kilpatrick of Pebble Beach and Rick Gregory of Carmel served as part of the crew of "The Ondine" month before last.

"The Ondine," a 73 foot ketch designed by William Tripp on the East Coast, was built in Germany especially for the race. It was the first to finish and it set a new time record of 188 hours, 54 minutes and 24 seconds for the eight day race. They sailed 1378 miles at an average speed of seven and a quarter knots. There were five American boats of the 33 entered.

"It was an extremely hard race," said Harvey Kilpatrick, "against the wind. There were the problems of an untried boat, not knowing where everything was . . . a back breaking job, it wasn't a Sunday sail." There were some compensations, however. The boat was air conditioned, had central heating, and it had a sauna which they used for drying clothes.

Made entirely of aluminum, even the mast, "The Ondine" had a lot of 12 meter innovations from the American Cup race. It is owned by Sumner Long of New York City.

They were entertained by the Yacht Club Argentino in the beautiful port at Rio. It was better to talk English than to talk Spanish to the Portuguese, Kilpatrick said.

People were very friendly but the question they kept encountering was what we were doing in Vietnam. The magazines and newspapers carry more on the war than they do here, he said.

Kilpatrick recently showed some 35 mm. movies of the race at Monterey Yacht Club of which he is vice-commander, for members and guests of that club and Stillwater Yacht Club. He is the nephew of Lloyd Womble of Pebble Beach.

"The Ondine," 73 foot ketch, overall winner of the recent Buenos Aires-Rio de Janeiro international yacht race. Harvey Kilpatrick of Pebble Beach and Rick Gregory of Carmel were members of her 20 man crew.

From A Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

Because there are so many expert photographers in this area, a book for the timid beginner is always welcome. Such a one is Getting Started In Photography by Les Barry. This is the second edition of this small book, which guides the beginner while he buys a camera, and later helps him take his first faltering pictures. Still later it shows him what accessories to buy and what to expect of them. Assistance all the way.

From taking pictures we go to looking like a picture, or trying to, at least. The book is Best New Hairdos by Patricia Dempsey. There are directions for rolling the hair and setting it and such what. It is mostly for teen-agers. Them as is older should let the book alone. Remember When is billed as a "loving look at days gone by - 1900-1942" and it is a fascinating look. First glance might cause you to believe that this is a coffee-table book, but actually that is not so. Not only does it have many interesting photographs but it also has the text to go with them and it is this text which will stimulate your memory and set in motion a happy nostalgia. The arrangement is chronological by five year periods. Allen Churchill edited it, and he included everything from Little Nemo of the funny papers, past Carle Nation with her hatchet, and on to the New York World's Fair in 1939-40, and Pearl Harbor.

In A Time Of Torment by I. F. Stone, the independent newspaperman who edited the I. F. Stone Weekly. Truth to tell, the book is composed of pieces from the Weekly, and in them Mr. Stone lays it on the line as he sees it. People sometimes come to the library for information on how to preserve and clean old bindings. We have a new book on the subject which we regard as authentic because it was published by the American Library Association as a part of its Library Technology Program. The title is Cleaning And Preserving Bindings And Related Materials and it was written by Carolyn Horton. Naturally enough the text and the pictures are valuable aids in doing this type of work, but included in the book are two other valuable items, namely a good glossary and a list of suppliers for use in purchasing needed materials. This book is paper bound, so treat it carefully.

If you never heard of William B. Ide, you are probably in good company. The fact is that Mr. Ide was leader of the Bear Flag Party which virtually conquered California in 1846, and caused the Bear Flag to be adopted as the state flag. His brother Simeon wrote a book about him and his exploits which was published in 1880. In 1967 a reprint edition was published through the cooperation of the California State Library. Thus we have a copy of this book, which is entitled The Conquest Of California By The Bear Flag Party.

Retired? Now you can get the best buy we've offered in 31 years.

Starting immediately, how would you like a guaranteed yearly income for life of 9% of the price you pay for an annuity?

That's just about what an Equitable-Immediate Life Annuity can give a man in his middle sixties, (not quite as much for a woman because women live longer.)

This 9%* is derived from both principal and interest. But you don't have to worry about outliving your principal. Equitable guarantees your annuity income for as long as you live. Even if you live to 100 or more, your annuity checks will keep coming in.

No other type of investment can provide such a guarantee. What's more, nothing can ever reduce the income that's written into your Equitable annuity contract which, today, gives you the most advantageous buy we've been able to offer at retirement in 31 years.

At your age, what's the lifetime income you can get? (The older you are, the higher the yearly income—about 13% for a man of 75.) Send in the coupon below and we'll give you all the answers.

Spring Vacation Barbecue Bash

With Spring vacation now in full swing, let's concentrate on a Barbecue Bash for youthful drop-ins. The trend among collegiates today is to become drop-outs, that is from family and home and to wander off for fun and frolic. We don't guarantee that supplying their special brand of food will keep them by the patio or beach barbecue, but given a wide range and choice these active students on the loose will enjoy being in charge of their own commissary.

Life is never dull when you're around teenagers or those just turned twenty-one. The pace is fast and music, clothes and fads change constantly. One thing that never changes is their appetites. Anywhere, anytime that they gather together, they're always hungry and ready to dive into food. Instead of the same old hamburger-hot dog-pizza routine, we're suggesting some ideas perfect for a barbecue that will be a bit unusual — yet easy to prepare and cook. A picnic means different things to different people. To most of us here it means simply rolling out the portable grill and cooking in the patio or on Carmel's beaches. Charcoal-ing enhances the sweet flavor of lamb. As it cooks the aroma sends out an invitation to "come and get it." Here are two recipes, one for rib lamb chops and pear grill with sausages; the other uses ground lamb (perhaps left over from Easter's roast); each has an exotic flavor to give an enticing touch.

Pickle Lamb-Bobs

One egg, slightly beaten; 2 T. chili sauce; ½ cup finely chopped sweet mixed pickles; ½ t. salt; dash pepper; 1½ lbs. ground lean lamb. Shape into 12 balls. Chill several hours. Place on skewers and wrap in wax paper or foil if going to the beach. Broil about 4 inches from heat, 10 minutes per side if meat is raw; if cooked, just heat long enough to brown nicely. Brush frequently with basting sauce. Then place the following vegetables on separate skewers: 2 medium peppers, cut in squares; 1 lb.

Honors at UC Davis

Hazel B. Jacoby and Catherine O. Sparolini, and James E. Holt, all of Carmel, have been named to the Dean's list at the University of California at Davis. Robert T. Cater II of Pebble Beach also made the list.

small white onions, parboiled but not soft; 1 lb. medium sized fresh mushroom caps. Grill these 5 minutes per side, brushing with the following sauce: Mix together ½ cup chili sauce; ¼ cup sweet pickle liquid; ½ t. instant minced onion and ¼ t. curry powder. Makes 6 servings.

Rib Lamb Chops and Pear Grill

One large can Bartlett pear halves, drained and syrup reserved; ½ cup jelly cranberry sauce; 1 T. cider vinegar; a slight dash each of ground allspice and cloves; 6 rib lamb chops, 1 inch thick; salt and pepper; 12 link sausages.

Combine ½ cup reserved pear juice with cranberry sauce, vinegar and spices. Simmer 30 minutes. Sprinkle lamb chops on both sides with salt and pepper. Brush chops and sausages with fruit sauce. Broil these 4 inches from source of heat, 6 minutes per side or until desired doneness, brushing often with sauce. Brush pears with sauce and broil with meat for last 2 minutes of broiling time. Pour any remaining sauce over chops, sausages and pears before serving. Makes 6 servings. This surely is a sophisticated grill served with Minute Rice which can be cooked on the spot in no time at all. Bring along fresh water to the beach if your Bash takes place there.

When springtime comes, salads spring forth. The National College Queen Contest winner gives this one as her specialty and a great favorite among college students.

Guacamole Salad

Three ripe avocados (but not too ripe!); 2 tomatoes, coarsely chopped; 1 onion, minced; 2 T. mayonnaise; lemon juice, salt, garlic salt and paprika to taste; western iceberg lettuce; 2 tomatoes, sliced; corn chips; pitted ripe olives.

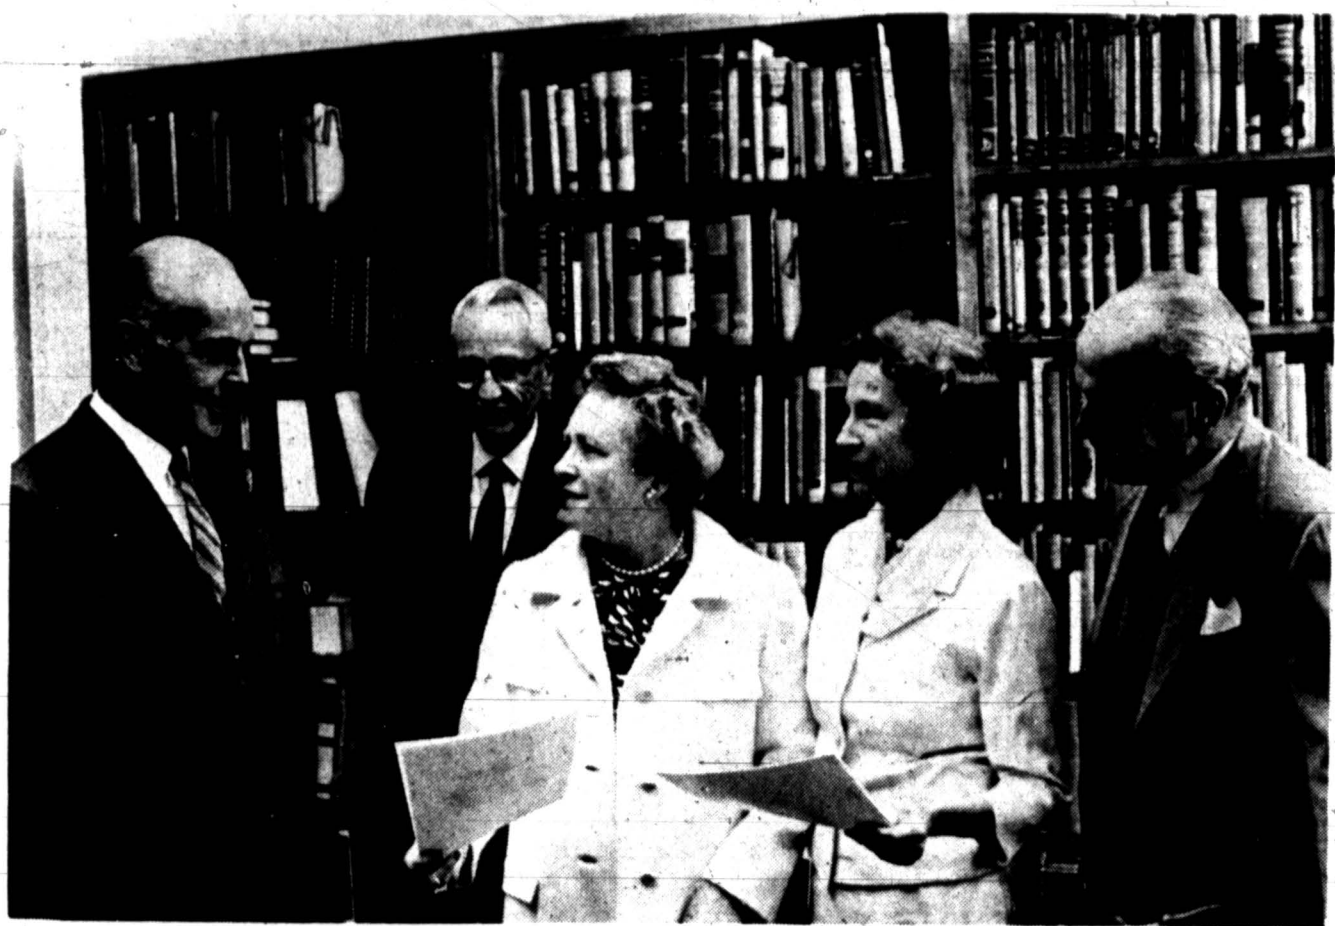

Peel avocados; mash with fork until thick mixture. Add next six items. Serve in lettuce cups. Garnish with sliced tomatoes, corn chips and ripe olives. If this salad is not portable, then buy delicatessen cole slaw or potato salad and garnish it to suit your fancy. All of this gourmet type of food may be too expensive, so reserve it for a small sixish group or divide the cost . . . otherwise return to the old reliables hamburgers, hot dogs and pizzas! Happy Holidays.

"Twin Ducks" (oil 20x24) by Ralph Jacobs, reproduced through the courtesy of Jacobs Gallery, San Carlos between 7th and Ocean Avenue. Ralph Jacobs has had two of his paintings accepted for the 38th Annual Statewide Exhibition, Santa Cruz Art League Galleries, March 30 - April 28.

Ralph Jacobs has been painting as long as he has been able to hold a brush. When he was 13 years old he was competing and holding his own in shows with established "pros." Still well under 30, he has produced an impressive collection of extremely fine work. He doesn't confine himself to one type of subject, but runs the gamut of still life, portraits, interiors, city scenes, landscapes, marines and birds. Depending upon his feeling for the subject, he works in both the very traditional and also the impressionistic style.

Mr. Jacobs is mostly self-taught. He has the respect and admiration of older, established artists who feel that his early success is just the beginning of a fruitful career as he grows and finds his own distinctive style which will shout "Ralph Jacobs".

The collector should find much to interest him in this young artist.

The Jacobs Gallery is located in Carmel Square on San Carlos St. between Ocean Ave. and 7th. The artist's mother, Julia Jacobs, manages the gallery and is justifiably proud of her talented son.

Adobe Tour

It's that time of the year again when the Monterey History and Art Association is planning the Annual Adobe House Tour.

Town House Exhibit For April

Travel Tax Comment

"The Administration would be wise to place far greater emphasis than it has yet done on programs to attract foreign visitors to the United States. Here is a virtually untapped source of dollars, embodying the positive principle of encouragement to travel instead of the negative approach thus far adopted."

—The New York Times

Mrs. Natalie Balls will be exhibiting Landscapes in oils at the Carmel Foundation Town House throughout the month of April.

Mrs. Balls, born in the province of Simbrisk, Russia of Russian parents, left Russia for England in 1925 and later during 1941 she joined her husband in the United States. It was then she had her first opportunity to study art seriously.

Private Collection

The work shown above is by Carmel artist, James Peter Cost. He received his BA from UCLA and his Masters from USC. James Peter Cost is a familiar sight painting seascapes along the coast between Moss Landing and Limekiln Creek or painting landscapes along the valley road to Jamesburg. His work may be seen only at the Carmel Seascape Gallery.

Arnold Genthe's magic lens caught two famous Bay Area Bohemians who were frequent visitors in Carmel, Xavier Martinez painting a portrait of the author Jack London at Glen Ellen in 1903. The men always addressed each other by the nicknames of "Wolf" and "Aztec," respectively, although in a more playful mood Martinez called London "Pretty Boy" to which London taunted him with the name of "Contented Yak." Genthe Photo Show At Carmel Museum

"The Magic Lens of Dr. Genthe" is the title of an exhibition now on view at the Carmel Museum of Art, Dolores at 7th street, Carmel. His photographs, and painting by artists who posed for him, will be shown until June.

Dr. Arnold Genthe (Gente) was a brilliant German who came to San Francisco in 1895. He became famous as a society portrait photographer in that city and in New York, where he lived from 1911 until his death in 1942. However, the Carmel Museum of Art exhibition embraces another aspect of his work: experimental and documentary photography.

From 1902 until 1911 Genthe maintained a vacation home in Carmel, where he did some of the earliest experimentation with color film. His Lumiere autochromes were the first colored photographs to be reproduced in an American magazine. Finally, in the Bohemian colonies of San Francisco, Carmel and Monterey he photographed artists of the period at work and play.

Among them was Charles Rollo Peters, who like Genthe had a home in San Francisco and a vacation house on the Monterey Peninsula. In 1907 the two men helped establish an art gallery in the old Del Monte Hotel, now a part of the Naval Postgraduate School.

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA

CARMEL is a breath of fresh air, an awareness of beauty. The materialist says of Carmel, "corny," nothin' to do. The idealist glimpses something of reality and a meaning of life in this area of great beauty.

Located, as Carmel is, almost on the west edge of the west coast, it benefits from clean Pacific air, filtered and conditioned by thousands of miles of ocean. It is snuggled into an intimate bay where it receives protection from northerly winds and is guarded by nearby Point Lobos and the Santa Lucia Mountains. Some Carmel Business Association facts are included in the following:

BRIEF HISTORY

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA is a residential community and art center located on the Pacific shore of Monterey County, California, 130 miles south of San Francisco and 350 miles north of Los Angeles.

Carmel is an informal, individualist town with a citizenry that constantly strives to preserve the natural beauty of ocean, hills and woods. Homes nestle around and under trees on the slopes that rise from the world-famous white sands of Carmel Beach. Local ordinances tightly restrict business zones (i.e., none on the Beach front), outlaw billboard and neon advertising, and control indiscriminate tree cutting.

Carmel has no cemetery, no mail delivery, no street addresses (mail is picked up at the local post office), and except for the business district, conventional sidewalks and street lights are missing.

The village is culturally active in music, art and little theatre groups, and features locally-made art objects in many gift shops.

CARMEL was named for the Carmelite Friars who came to the area with Viscaino in 1602. Carmel's first building, the Mission San Carlos de Borromeo (second of the great Franciscan Missions in California) was established by Father Junipero Serra in 1770.

In the early 1900's, the village of Carmel began around a group of young artists and writers. Five hundred residents living in an area of 7/8 of one square mile incorporated Carmel-by-the-Sea in 1916 and established a Mayor and City Council government.

The Wonderful World of the Pine Inn

How can the PINE INN gain the right to be known throughout the world without the continuous warmth and hospitality that wraps itself around each guest as he enters.

The PINE INN holds a personality and attraction for its owner, who returns it by close attention to the wants of each guest and, to the PINE INN itself, constant additions and refurbishing to bring it to its present state of graciousness. Encompassed within its present structure is the original INN, perhaps imbuing the present with the aura of the past.

The PINE is truly an INN.

They DID tell their friends!

From all over the world, as the records show, came guests — from Counts and Barons to the itinerant traveler.

We don't know how many we had in 1915, but during 1967 the PINE INN entertained in excess of 377,000 guests in its various capacities: its individually designed bedrooms in the Victorian mood, the Crystal Room and Victorian Room as private dining supplements to the Main Dining Room, all famous for their delectable cuisine, and the Red Parlor to toast good health and happiness.

Relax after your 17 Minute Walk with cocktails, lunch or dinner at the PINE INN.

The Friends of Photography have opened another impressive show in their gallery at Sunset Center, presenting prints by the nationally known photographer John Brook.

Brooks' photographs seem to follow the "love" theme with abundant prints of young men and women embracing in natural settings. He has captured, as well, groups of deer grazing in the forest.

A beautiful show warranting a visit by every interest photographer.

The Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art is presently showing photographs by David Donoho and Herb Quick. Donoho is the professor of art and education at San Jose State College and Quick is a staff photographer at the University of California in Riverside.

The show will continue throughout the month and can be seen at the Association headquarters on Lincoln street near Ocean Avenue.

Edith Duncan Shows Robertson One Man Show At Art Association

The Carmel Art Association is currently featuring Edith Dinkin with a one man show.

Edith Dinkin studied at the California College of Arts and Crafts with Richard Diebenkorn, Nathan Oliveira and Jason Schoener. She has been granted a number of one man shows throughout the West Coast.

She is a member of the Carmel Art Association, the San Francisco Museum of Art, and San Francisco Women's Artists.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Evan Kirk of Carmel became the parents of Dana Elizabeth on March 30 and Mr. and Mrs. John Walter Dommes, the parents of Jon David on April 2.

One of the Peninsula's youngest, most competent artists' Richard Robertson, is currently enjoying a One Man Show at the Zantman Art Galleries.

Next to the obvious necessity of studying and mastering techniques, one of the artist's first requirements is to SEE, to discover beauty in ordinary things. Robertson collects his visions of beauty as separate stones to be polished and arranged until they can be presented in paintings as expressions of his private world.

When he returns to his home in Oregon, he collects his impressions along the way and his talent uses the magic of everyday beauty: sudden weeds against a new snow ... a barn that guards a valley or a shining kettle in the sunlight.

Robertson received his B.S. degree in drawing and painting from the University of Oregon and studied at the Art Center School in Los Angeles.

Christian Science Sunday Sermon

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Easter Sunday. The services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Monte Verde and Sixth, Carmel, begin at 11:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m., and are open to the public.

Selections from the Bible include this verse from Isaiah: "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else."

Among citations from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy are these lines: "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made."

A special Easter solo "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth" by Handel will be sung by Norma Jean Hodges, church soloist.

Bernice Holyoake will play the organ.

REPORTS FROM RLS

By Chandler Meloy

Knechler Leads In Campus Project

Former student body President Larry Kuechler, now attending Stanford University, was instrumental in organizing a weekend of fun and games for 39 underprivileged children from the Mountain View area. They spent the weekend on the Stevenson campus, using facilities made available when the resident boys went home for their annual Easter vacation.

And this was a real Christmas/Easter present for these youngsters from the 7th and 8th grades, mostly of Mexican-American background. As Kuechler said: "Many had never seen the ocean before, most have been fighting and clawing all their lives without anyone taking a few minutes to give them a hand or to show them some love and companionship."

The sponsoring agency was the Serra Community Action House of Stanford, and some 24 faculty and student sponsors attended with the youngsters.

In addition to the wonderful weekend of sunshine, the boys and girls went hiking, visited the local communities, had a B-B-Que at the beach, played games on the school fields, and saw movies in the school dining hall. The pool also had extensive use.

This project is typical of Larry Kuechler, an example of what leadership really is, for he organized this weekend with the youngsters in mind, and not the problems. Our salute to Kuechler, and our thanks to the youngsters for "visiting us".

Mr. "R" In Central America

Mr. and Mrs. Rickles have joined a group of boys in visiting the site of the "Inter-act" School that is being jointly sponsored by R.L.S. students and the Carmel Rotary Club. Rick Johnson of Costa Rica is the student host.

And, from the whole school, both students and faculty, WE WISH YOU A VERY HAPPY EASTER.

Richard Monroe Weds Linda Collins

The wedding of Richard Charles Monroe of Carmel and Linda Collins took place recently in Ontario, California.

Richard, a Carmel High School graduate in 1962, is a Civil Engineering student at Cal Poly in Pomona. He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineering and Veterans Club.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Monroe of Carmel and the brother of Shirley Monroe of Carmel, Mrs. Terry (Nancy) McCormack and Todd Monroe who is at Navy training school in San Diego.

Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Collins of Ontario. She was graduated from Chaffey College and attended Missouri State College, and is now employed by Scientific Data Systems in Pomona.

For the double ring ceremony by candlelight, Linda wore an empire sheath of peau satin and Chantilly lace with long sleeves and chapel length train. A cluster of daisies around a white orchid topped her butterfly face veil.

Linda's attendants, who included Shirley Monroe, wore long dresses in romance blue with headpieces of blue net gathered under a cluster of matching daisies. Her little flower girl wore a white eyelet floor length dress over blue taffeta and carried a basket of blue and white daisies. Ushers wore powder blue dinner jackets.

Following the reception at the church, the couple left for a week at Crestline, California and Las Vegas. They will live in Ontario.

Local Riders Win Steeplechase

Willard Bradley of Carmel Valley won the Spyglass Hill Steeplechase Saturday at Bird Rock in Del Monte Forest. His horse, Travel Agent, who was injured in the same event last year, won easily over the 3½ mile course. Owner of the horse is Michael Collins of Pebble Beach, but he rode Doctor, owned by his father, Richard D. Collins, and came in third. Gerald Bearden of Robert Louis Stevenson School came in second.

Mrs. Frank Bottero of Carmel Valley won the two mile Steeplechase for Ladies on her horse Solomon.

The fun of the afternoon was the Shetland pony race, jockeys for which were fathers of All Saints' Episcopal Day School students. Reverend David Hill was the tentative winner, followed by Bert Rudolph and Ted Huntington even more questionably.

Tour of the Continent

Dan and Patsey Danelz of Carmel are touring the Continent and will visit Greece, the Greek Isles and Yugoslavia before they return, which may not be before the end of summer.

April in Greece

Florence Smythe of Carmel is spending the month of April in Greece, Yugoslavia and Turkey.

Job Training Is Next LWV Study Project

The League of Women Voters of the Peninsula chose to investigate job training and employment opportunities on the Peninsula as their 1968-69 study project at the annual meeting held at Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club last week.

Vocational education, work training and work incentive programs; the role of the anti-poverty council, private groups, industry and public agencies; the need for child care centers to allow women to work, and remedial or pre-vocational programs will be included, as well as the need to coordinate all these efforts.

A skit featuring Tilly Taxpayer and Mr. Tax Collector served to introduce the topic of state and local government finances which is being studied in the local meetings. It ended with group singing of the Internal Revenue Service Chorale.

Mrs. R. N. Ellis was re-elected president with Miss Ruth Whitcomb of Carmel assisting her as secretary. Mrs. Bernard Van Horne of Carmel will again serve on the board.

Support of measures which promote greater understanding of public assistance programs in Monterey County—their goals, methods, problems and attainments—was endorsed as a new continuing responsibility.

Also endorsed as continuing responsibilities: improved and extended rehabilitation programs for the Peninsula youth; area planning; limiting of billboards in the county to commercial and industrial zones; cooperation among library districts and the county library.

Steven Gann Leaving For Vietnam Tuesday

Steve Gann is leaving for Vietnam Tuesday as war correspondent for the San Francisco Chronicle. He plans to travel with Special Forces and report primarily on their efforts in civic action rather than their highly publicized blood and guts role.

As a trained photographer, writer and anthropologist, Steve should be sending back to the States some very interesting and unusual views of the war. Graduate of Sunset, Carmel High and San Francisco State College in 1963, Steve spent a year as a seaman on the Te Vega in Southeast Asia and two years in the Army, in the meantime.

This past week, he has been suffering the effects of a plague shot which has slowed his preparations somewhat.

Wine, Women, Art

An evening of wine, women and art will be staged as a benefit for the blind. The women are Delta Gamma Alumnae of the Monterey Peninsula who are sponsoring a Wine Tasting Party and Art Show on April 21 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Hazelwood of Pebble Beach.

Artists whose paintings will be featured are Keith Lindberg, Linford Donovan, Beatrice Wheelock, Frank June, Ed Norton Ward and Mary Agnes Lansdowne.

Wines will be provided by Loomis Wine Cellar of Carmel. Tickets may be obtained from local Delta Gammas.

May 1 Ladies Day At Rotary

The Carmel Rotary Club has scheduled May 1 as "Ladies Day," at which time all Carmel Rotary-Anns will be invited to the luncheon at the La Playa Hotel.

Yesterday the Rotary enjoyed an entertaining yet informative luncheon during their "Past Presidents Day," Bob Spence, chairman.

Next week Peter Hass will speak to the Club.

April Activity of Alliance Francaise

On April 18 at 8 p.m., Chancellor Samson B. Knoll of the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies will give an informal talk in English and show slides in beautiful color which he took of France during a recent trip there.

The new auditorium of the Institute has instantaneous translation merely by pressing a button one one's chair. This is the only place outside of the United Nations where this wonderful method is now being used.

CHANGE YOUR OUTLOOK!

TAKE A WINDOW SEAT ON THE SEA! Two fabulous homes sitting right on the ocean's edge south of Carmel five miles and 12 miles. Priced at $97,500 and $108,000. Never a dull moment again in your life!

OR LOOK AT THE SEA FROM AFAR and enjoy a panoramic view of the great Santa Lucias and the Carmel Valley as well. Just listed one of Carmel's most charming homes all hidden away on a cul-de-sac, very private, but with views very panoramic. Sunny step-down living room, 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, and Charm, Charm, Charm. And only $49,000. JUST ABOVE THE MISSION, with the same kind of view only more to the South and West, and first time on the market since it was built 18 years ago. This means it could use some decorating updating, but you won't match the superb location, rose garden, setting, at anything like this $45,000 price. And one in that hard-to-find-vacant-house area, RANCHO RIO VISTA, a very special custom planned home with all kinds of every view, for $59,500.

OR HAVE A REAL FAIRY-TALE VIEW of ocean and forest from way up on top of the world in the Carmel Highlands area. The home is exquisite, but it's only for those who treasure real privacy. Well worth its $80,000 price.

OR LOOK DOWN ON MONTEREY BAY from a wooded five-plus-acre parcel in that very special Jack's Peak area. This means very close to Carmel, Pebble Beach, Monterey, but the feeling of being a thousand miles from everywhere. Lovely home included at $65,000.

GET AWAY FROM IT ALL — from everything, that is, except nature. How about a post adobe on top of the saddle between Carmel Valley and the Salinas Valley, at the end of a paved road on the Carmel side. It's real seclusion, and it's real view... probably you never even imagined one quite like it.

CHANGE YOUR PACE!

SLOW DOWN. Feed the animals and birds in the green belt across the street. Show your kids how things grow. Take your carts out of the garage and wheel around a few blocks to the club. In the evening, enjoy your quiet living room while the kids watch TV in the family room. New on the market and only $64,500.

WALK TO TOWN AND THE BEACH in Carmel. Enjoy a traditional home near La Playa hotel. Sur in your private patio or go to the beach just down the hill. Priced just $57,500.

LIVE WITH THE FOREST PRIMEVAL behind you and a year-round stream in your front yard in the beautiful Palo Colorado Canyon. One of the original log houses. Back to nature at $27,500.

CHANGE YOUR BUDGET!

SPEND MORE ON TRAVEL, LESS ON A HOME. But don't compromise on quality. Hard? Not in Carmel where you've two well built, extremely charming, delightfully landscaped homes to choose from, at less than $40,000. One even has a complete artist's studio and is priced at just $34,500. See them both, and see if they aren't just as adequate for your new way of life as your great big house. (P.S. — we also have a beautifully built little one-bedroom, shake roof home for $25,950).

Back from Trip Around the World

Marc and Theresa Moser are back in Carmel after a trip around the world during which they spent some time in their home town of Zurich in Switzerland. There, relatives almost succeeded in persuading them to stay, but they had left their hearts in Carmel.

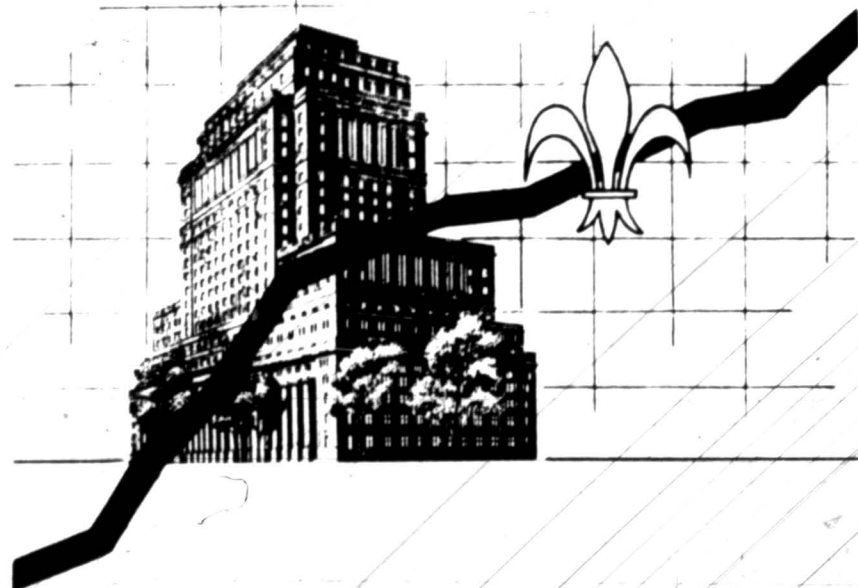

Looking around for a nice little place to open a restaurant, they found the former Yankee Pantry in Lincoln Lane and remodelled it like a typical Swiss tavern. They intend to serve Swiss specialties in a cozy atmosphere. The Mosers operated a Swiss restaurant in San Francisco.

Plus de $340 millions
à la disposition de l'économie
du Québec

Chaque dollar d'épargne acquiert un double usage, lorsqu'un québécois le confie à la Sun Life.

En effet, la Sun Life s'est toujours fait un devoir de placer plus de fonds, dans sa province d'origine, qu'elle n'avait à le faire pour satisfaire à ses engagements contractuels.

Ces placements sont de l'ordre de $340 millions et ils augmentent chaque année de façon marquée. En 1962, la Compagnie a placé dans la province plus de $30 millions en obligations provinciales et municipales et en prêts hypothécaires. Elle a également investi des montants considérables dans la province sous plusieurs autres formes de placement.
